BRIAN MAINA 94%

ADM 535

COMMUNICATION SKILLS

END-TERM EXAMINATION

TIME: 2 HOURS 30 MINUTES
TOTAL MARKS: 100

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

1. Answer ALL questions.
2. Write your answers clearly and number them correctly.
3. Marks for each question are indicated in brackets.

SECTION A

1. Define the term communication. (2 marks)

2. State four functions of communication in an organization. (4 marks)

3. Identify four components of the communication process. (4 marks)

4. State four factors that may prevent effective communication between people. (4 marks)

5. Distinguish between oral communication and written communication. (4 marks)

6. Give four examples of written communication documents used in a college. (4 marks)

7. State four principles of effective communication. (4 marks)

8. Identify four types of non-verbal communication used in everyday interactions. (4 marks)

SECTION B

9a) A workshop supervisor gives instructions to a trainee on how to operate a machine. The trainee misunderstands the instructions and operates the machine incorrectly. State three possible reasons for the misunderstanding. (3 marks)

b) Explain three measures the supervisor can take to ensure that trainees understand instructions correctly. (6 marks)

c) The administration of Aberdare Technical College needs to notify students that the examination timetable has changed. Identify three communication channels the administration can use and explain one advantage of each channel. (6 marks)

1] Communication → The Process of Sending and Receiving of information btwn two or more people.

2] Reduces Errors and Misunderstanding improves Coordination and teamwork among members.
Allows imediate feedback and clarification.

3

4 Sender
Message
Receiver
channel

4 Noise.
Poor listening
Cultural difference.
language difference.

5 Verbal Communication. → information Communicated through Spoken word.
Written Communication → information using gestures, Body language E.T.C

6 Letters
Memos
Emails
Minutes

7 Sender
message
Receiver
Channel.

8 Gestures
Body language
facial Expression

Eye Contact.

Section B.

9a) Language Barrier
Noise
Poor Listening. 3

b) Clarification of information. -> He should be specific on the information he speaks.
2) Involve the audience in Communication -> This may due to poor listening he should involve the audience by asking questions.
3) He should Communicate in a language that everyone understands.

c) Emails -> fast and Reliable. 2 The.
Memos -> Accurate. 2
Letters -> 1
Minutes -> Should Communicate through minutes of where the Members are Present.

10) Active Listening -> The Employee should listen.
a) to the customer attentively
~~Constructive feedback.~~
Empathy. -> The Employee needs to understand the Customs frustration and show understanding.
Proffessional Composure. -> The Employee should Control his own emotions and frustrations. 6

20

b) It enhances flexibility.
Enhances
In Coordination and teamwork in an organization.
Allows immediate feedback and clarification.

c) Respectful discussion → they should not disagree hence solve through discussion and diplomacy.
Effective turn taking → Everyone should be allowed to communicate his own thoughts and feelings.
Active listening → they should listen to everyone opinion and respect their decision.

(i) a) Clarity → The message should be clear direct and easily read.
2) Conciseness → The message should be straight to the point.
3) Courtesy → It should maintain a polite and professionalism throughout.
4) Correctness → it is free from gramatic errors.

b) Formal → follows hierarchical chain of command it adheres to strict organizational rules and is usually documented Informal → Spontaneous and flows easily outside the official channels among the individuals Regardless of the rank.

d) BRIAN MAINA Class Respicsentative Aberdare technical College P.O Box 21900 14/10/26

Dear Sir/Madam

RE: Request for Repair

I am writing this letter to you on behalf of Computer students To inform.

that the Computers in the Laboratory Lab are faulty, I would like you to improve the situation. for Smooth learning hours faithfully

Brian

12a Listens without interrupting
Maintains appropriate eye Contact.
Avoids Premature judgement.
Asks Clarifying Questions.

b Preliminaries
Reading and Confirmation of the Previous Minutes.
Presentation of data.
Discussion of the underlying Causes.

c) Writing and Confirmation of the previous minutes.
- Checking the Members present and writing Members absent.
- Keeping the Records of the Minutes and of the previous minutes.

13a) It allows immediate response.
It allows BIS to function
It keeps the communication flowing.

b) Report time and date.
Report title
Report body.

23.