BRIAN . M.

48/50

96%.

COMMUNICATION SKILLS – CAT 2

Time: 1 Hour 30 Minutes
Total Marks: 50

Instructions to Candidates

1. Answer all questions.
2. Read each situation carefully before answering.
3. Give practical answers based on the situation presented.
4. Where examples are required, use relevant workplace examples.

QUESTIONS

1. You are working in a hotel reception where a customer complains that his reservation has not been recorded. The customer is becoming angry and speaking loudly.

a) State two communication skills you would use when handling the customer. (2 marks)

b) Give two ways you would respond to the customer without making the situation worse. (2 marks)

c) State one reason why active listening would be important in this situation. (1 mark)

2. A supervisor gives instructions to three employees about preparing a work area. One employee is using a mobile phone, another is talking to a colleague, while the third employee is paying attention.

a) Identify two barriers to effective communication demonstrated in the situation. (2 marks)

b) Suggest two actions the supervisor could take to ensure that all employees understand the instructions. (2 marks)

c) State one possible consequence of employees failing to understand workplace instructions. (1 mark)

3. During a departmental meeting, a trainee disagrees with a decision made by the team. Instead of interrupting the speaker, the trainee waits for an appropriate opportunity to present his views respectfully.

a) Identify two communication skills demonstrated by the trainee. (2 marks)

b) Give two reasons why the trainee's approach is appropriate in a meeting. (2 marks)

c) State one possible result of interrupting other speakers during a meeting. (1 mark)

4. A college department needs to inform all trainers that a staff meeting has been moved from Monday at 10:00 a.m. to Tuesday at 2:00 p.m.

a) State two factors that should be considered when choosing the most appropriate method of communicating this information. (2 marks)

b) Name two appropriate methods that could be used to communicate the change to all trainers. (2 marks)

c) Give one reason why the message should contain the exact date and time of the meeting. (1 mark)

5. A customer calls a business to enquire about the cost and availability of a service. The employee answers the phone but speaks too quickly and fails to record the customer's contact details.

a) State two mistakes made by the employee. (2 marks)

b) Describe two actions the employee should take to improve the telephone communication. (2 marks)

c) State one piece of information that should be confirmed before ending the call. (1 mark)

6. A supervisor sends the following message to an employee:

"Come to my office later. We need to discuss the work you did yesterday."

The employee is unsure about the purpose and time of the meeting.

a) Identify two weaknesses in the message. (2 marks)

b) Rewrite the message to make it clear and specific. (2 marks)

c) State one advantage of using clear language in workplace communication. (1 mark)

7. During a practical session, a trainer notices that one learner repeatedly performs a task incorrectly. Instead of embarrassing the learner in front of the class, the trainer speaks to the learner privately and gives constructive feedback.

a) State two reasons why giving the feedback privately is appropriate. (2 marks)

b) Give two characteristics of effective feedback the trainer should demonstrate. (2 marks)

c) State one likely effect of humiliating the learner in front of other students. (1 mark)

[5 marks]

1

a) 1) Active listening
2) Patience -

b) Apologize Politely and remain Calm while allowing the Customer to Explain the Problem -

c) Check the Reservation Records & Explain the Situation Clearly while offering Solution.

d) It helps understand the Customer's Problem Correct and Prevents Misunderstanding.

2

a) Distraction -> an Employee using the Phone.
Lack of attention -> another Employee is talking to a Colleague instead of listening.

b) Ask the Employees to put their Phone aside so that them Can Concentrate -

c) Give the instructions Clearly and ask questions or have Employees Repeat what was Echoed.

c) Then make mistakes while performing their duties Causing delays or accidents.

3

a) Respectful Communication
b) Active Listening.

b) It Prevents interruptions and allows the Speaker to finish Expressing their ideas
It promotes Openness and Respectful Discussion - c] It Can Cause Conflict or disrupt a meeting.

No

4]

a] Number of Trainees to Be Reached

b] Urgency of the information.

b] Emails

Texts

c] To ensure everyone ~~to~~ knows the Correct date and time and avoids missing the meeting.

5a) Speaking too quickly, failing to record the Customer's details accurately

b] Speak Clearly at a Moderate Pace

Listen Carefully and Record Customer's details accurately.

c] Confirm the Customer's Contact Before ending the Call.

6

a) The time of the meeting is not Specified.

The Purpose of the meeting is unclear

b] Clear and Specific message

"Please Come to my office at 2:00 PM today to discuss the work you Completed yesterday."

c] Clear Language reduces misunderstanding and Confusion.

a) It Protects the Learners dignity and avoids embarrassment.

It allows the learner to Receive and discuss the feedback Comfortably.

b) It Should be Specific and Constructive.

It Should be Clear & Respectful.

c) Humiliating the learner may Reduce their Confidence and Motivation to learn.

e

a) Date, time & venue of the meeting

b) Names of members Present and absent.

c) Resolutions Made during the meeting.

b) To Provide an Accurate official Record of what was Agreed and Guide future action.

c) The ChairPerson.

a) Understand the Customer Complaint and verify the facts. Use, Polite, Calm and Professional Language.

b) provides a Clear Solution to Resolve the Customer & apologizes the inconvinces Caused.

c) It may damage the Company Reputation, and worsen the Customer Dissatisfaction.

15