

48
50
cls.

Brian namu

96%

1] Communication → the process of receiving, sending & exchanging information between two or more people.

2] Sender

Message

Receiver

Channel

3] Reduces Errors and Misunderstanding

• Improves Coordination and teamwork among members

4] Noise

Poor listening

Cultural Differences

Language Barrier Differences

5] Verbal Communication → Communication using spoken or written words.

Non-verbal Communication → Communication using gestures, facial expression, body language or eye contact.

6] Memos

Emails

7] Pays Attention to the speaker

Does not interrupt unnecessarily.

8] Allows immediate feedback and clarification.

Allows use of non-verbal cues of communication such as eye contact.

20

- 9] a) Sender → a person who initiates and sends the information.
- b) Message → information or idea that is being communicated.
- c) Channel → medium used to transmit the information.
- d) Receiver → a person who receives and interprets a message.
- e) Feedback → The response given by the receiver to show whether the message has been understood.

10] 1] Language Barrier → when people don't understand the language being used.

E.g. A college teacher uses words that students don't understand.

2] Noise → any disturbance that interferes with the message.

E.g. loud music makes it hard to hear or understand.

3] Poor listening → failure to pay attention or understand the message.

E.g. A student is doodling while the teacher is speaking.

4] Emotional Barrier → feeling of anger, stress interferes with the communication.

E.g. An angry ^{student} teacher fails to listen to the teacher.

5] Physical Barrier → physical ^{conditions} ~~distance~~ or distance that makes communication hard.

E.g. A speaker is too far for audience to hear.

11] 1] The trainee fails to greet the trainer.

The trainee gives unclear information.

The trainee approached a trainer when busy.

07. Greet the trainer politely and ask whatever is the
BET time to take. ✓ 2

2) Give clear and precise information about the assignment. ✓

12

Q) Clarity ✓

Timeliness ✓

Accuracy. ✓ 3

Message

Dear Classmates

It is my honor to inform you that the practical
Lesson has been ~~rescheduled~~ rescheduled from 9:00 to 1:00. Kindly

Take note and attend the class on time

Thank you. ✓ 3

C) Whatsapp. ✓ 2

• ~~Send~~ Verbal Communication during class time.

10

20
10
10
10
40