

48/50

Martin Ndigwe

96%

ABERDARE TECHNICAL COLLEGE

CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT TEST (CAT) I

Date 14/09/2018

UNIT: INSTALL COMPUTER SOFTWARE

UNIT CODE: 0619 451 06A

ELEMENT COVERED: SOFTWARE INSTALLATION

TERM 3

TIME: 1 HOUR 30 MINUTES

TOTAL MARKS: 50 MARKS

CANDIDATE INSTRUCTIONS

1. Read all questions carefully before beginning the assessment.
2. Answer all questions provided in the assessment.
3. Write your answers clearly and in the spaces or answer sheets provided.
4. Observe the marks allocated to each question and provide answers with an appropriate level of detail.
5. Where a question requires examples, provide relevant and technically correct examples.
6. For questions requiring explanations, give clear and concise technical explanations rather than merely listing points.
7. Where a question requires you to distinguish or compare concepts, clearly state the differences between the concepts.

1. Distinguish between System Software and Application Software, giving two examples of each. (6 marks)
2. Outline four common methods or techniques an IT technician can use to collect software user needs within an organization. (4 marks)

1. System Software it runs and controls the computer hardware while Application Software helps the user perform specific tasks. OF
System Software: Provides a platform for application software to run
While Application Software depends on system software to operate.
Examples of system software Windows, Linux → Operating systems
Application software Microsoft word, Microsoft excel, 3 office

2. Interviews ✓

Questionnaires

Group discussions ✓ 84

Observations ✓

3. Cost of the Software ✓

Security features ✓ 84

Ease of Use ✓

Scalability and future needs ✓

4. Advantages

It is readily available and can be installed quickly ✓

It is usually cheaper than developing custom software. 84

Disadvantages

It may have limited customization options ✓

It may not fully meet the organization's specific needs.

5. Password Policy ✓

Account type ✓ 84

Account name ✓

Account expiration ✓

6. Administrator Account: Has full access to system settings, software installation and user management.

Standard User Account - Can perform normal tasks but has limited access to important system settings.

Guest Account - Has very limited access and is mainly used for temporary users.

1. Identify the accountants need - find out what tasks they do daily. Such as recording.
2. Consult the accountants - Ask the users about the features they need and the problem they currently face.
3. List the required features - Write down important requirements such as features.
4. Research available software - Look for accounting software that provides required features.
5. Compare the options - Compare the software based on cost, security.
6. Ask the software - Allow accountants to try some or test version.
7. Collect feedback - Ask the accountants whether the software is easy to use.
8. Make the final selection - Choose the software that match the requirements.

Turnkey Software - Ready-made software purchased from a vendor. It is suitable when the firms need the common and it wants quick implementation. Bespoke Software - Software developed specifically for the firm. It is preferred when the firms accounting processes are unique.

8.0 System Administrator - Administrator account - features access to system settings and management tasks.

Permanent Requirement: Standard User account - Can perform daily office duties without changing important system settings.

Visiting Check In time: Guest or Limited Standard User account - Provides temporary, restricted access.

Unauthorized access - Users may access files and information that they are not supposed to see.

Security breaches - If one user's account is compromised, the whole workstation may be at greater risk.